WILLIAM V. BIDWILL

Managing General Partner

William V. Bidwill, managing general partner of the Football Cardinals, has spent his entire life in professional football.

A son of former Big Red president and owner, the late Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a member of Pro Football's Hall of Fame, Bill has served in varying capacities of the Cardinals' organization—working in ticket promotion, scouting, signing of players, public relations and advertising.

Bill became president of the team shortly before the start of the 1972 season and assumed a new title—managing general partner—in March. He also is vice-president of the St. Louis Soccer Stars.

The 42-year-old Bidwill, a graduate of Georgetown University and a veteran of Navy service, lives in St. Louis with his wife Nancy and their four sons and one daughter.

JOE SULLIVAN

Director of Operations

Joe Sullivan begins his first season as the Big Red's director of operations with outstanding credentials, including 17 years of NFL personnel experience.

Hired in late February, Sullivan, 48, is responsible for the Cardinals' personnel operations—specifically trades, supervision of the team's college and professional scouting and the signing of all players.

Sullivan came to the Big Red from Washington, where he had served as assistant general manager and assistant coach in 1971-72. He began his NFL affiliation with the Green Bay Packers' personnel department during the 1957 draft. In 1959, he joined the Chicago Bears in a similar capacity.

He spent seven seasons with the Bears before going to Los Angeles in 1966 as special assignments coach under George Allen, and then followed Allen to Washington in 1971. A native of Milwaukee and a veteran of Marine service, Sullivan and his wife Joan live in St. Louis.

DON CORYELL, Head Coach

Offensive-minded Don Coryell makes his debut as head coach of the Football Cardinals in 1973—a season in which he and the Big Red will be striving to show marked improvement from successive 4-9-1 records the past two years.

The 48-year-old Coryell was handed the Cardinal reins on January 18, after an outstanding 15-year college head coaching career in which he won more than 83 per cent of his games and never experienced a losing season.

The last 12 years were at San Diego State, where Coryell's teams, using a pro-style attack that stressed the passing game, posted an amazing 104-19-2 record

(84%). His remarkable success led Sid Gillman, coach of the San Diego Chargers in the 1960's, and now with the Houston Oilers, to remark, "He is a coach with a pro's knowledge using it against college coaches. They can't cope with him."

The dedicated, enthusiastic Coryell has no plans of changing his techniques in the professional ranks. "We want to become a winning football team, and one obvious key to doing this will be becoming more offensive," he says. "Defense is very important in this league, but I also believe in scoring. We want to attack the defense and throw the football."

Before Coryell's emergence at San Diego State, he had left his mark at Whittier College, where in 1957 he succeeded George Allen, now riding high with the Washington Redskins. In three years, Coryell posted a 23-5-1 record and three conference championships. His 1959 team led the nation's college division teams in total offense and passing.

After a year as offensive backfield coach at Southern Cal in 1960, Coryell landed the head coaching job at San Diego State and inherited a team that had won only two games in the two previous seasons combined. Things quickly changed. Coryell posted a 7-2-1 record his first year—that would be the Aztecs' second poorest mark in his 12 seasons.

At San Diego, Coryell had three unbeaten seasons—11-0 in 1966, 9-0-1 in 1968 and 11-0 in 1969. His teams won 25 consecutive games during a period from 1965-67, and after that streak ended, Coryell coached the Aztecs 31 games in a row without a defeat.

He was named NCAA District College Division Coach of the Year four times (1963-66-67-68), and San Diego State was selected the nation's top college division team by both wire services in 1966-67, and first by UPI in 1968. The Aztecs were promoted to university division status in 1969 and after only four seasons under Coryell, the school now holds 18 individual and team NCAA offense records.

Born in Seattle, Wash., on Oct. 17, 1924, Coryell graduated from high school there in 1943, then spent the next three years in the U.S. Army. After his discharge, he attended the University of Washington, graduating with a B.A. degree in 1950 and a M.A. degree a year later.

His first coaching stops were as an assistant at Punahou Academy in Honolulu in 1951 and head coach at Farrington High School, also in Honolulu, a year later. He returned to Washington as an assistant in 1953-54.

In 1955, Coryell moved to Wenatchee (Wash). Junior College and turned a team which had not won a game the season before into undefeated state champions. A year later, he was athletic director and head football coach at Fort Ord., Calif., and recorded another unbeaten season. From there, it was on to Whittier and the start of the success story.

Coryell is married to the former Aliisa Gronroos, and they live in suburban St. Louis with their two children: Mike, 16, and Mindy, 12.

DOWHOWER

HANIFAN

Offensive Staff

ROD DOWHOWER, Quarterbacks-Receivers

A record-setting passer for coach Don Coryell at San Diego State, Rod Dowhower, 29, will work with the Big Red's passing game. After starting for two seasons at San Diego State and gaining honorable mention little all-America honors in 1964, Dowhower signed as a free agent with San Francisco and spent 1½ seasons on the 49ers' future list.

He returned to San Diego State in 1966 and was on Coryell's staff for seven seasons, coaching the quarterbacks and receivers. Three of his Aztec quarterback products are currently with NFL teams: Dennis Shaw (Buffalo) and Don Horn and Brian Sipe (Cleveland); and five of the receivers he coached started in the league last year. Dowhower, born in Ord, Nebr., and his wife Nancy are the parents of two sons.

JOE GIBBS, Backs

Joe Gibbs, 32, who also has both played and coached for Don Coryell, comes to the Cardinals after nine years of college coaching. Gibbs played as an offensive lineman and linebacker at San Diego State from 1961-63. He was a graduate assistant there in 1964-65 and became offensive line coach in 1966—with the Aztecs posting an 11-0 record.

His other college stops include offensive line positions at Florida State (1967-68), Southern California (1969-70) and Arkansas (1971-72). Both of the Florida State teams made bowl appearances and the 1969 Trojans finished as undefeated Rose Bowl champions. Gibbs, born in Mocksville, N. C., and his wife Pat are the parents of two sons.

JIM HANIFAN, Line

Experienced in offensive coaching, Jim Hanifan, 39, starts his first pro assignment with the Big Red's offensive line. He served in a similar position for Don Coryell last year at San Diego State and had been passing-game coach at California (Berkeley) in 1970-71 under head coach Ray Willsey, now also with the Big Red.

Hanifan starred for California as an end from 1952-54, leading the nation in receiving as a senior and earning all-Coast honors. He was with Toronto of the Canadian Football League in 1955 and then played service ball under Coryell in 1956. Other college coaching stops have been at Yuba (Calif.) Junior College (1959), Glendale (Calif.) Junior College (1964-65) and offensive coach at Utah (1966-69). A native of Compton, Calif., he and his wife Mariana are the parents of a son and daughter.

HALL

WILLSEY

Defensive Staff

SID HALL, Line

A former defensive coordinator for Don Coryell at San Diego State, Sid Hall will work with the Big Red's defensive line. Previously, he served as linebacker coach with the Oakland Raiders (1969-70) and as line coach the past two seasons with the Los Angeles Rams.

Hall, 47, played at Bakersfield (Calif.) Junior College and College of the Pacific, gaining all-Coast honors as both a center and linebacker as a senior in 1950. He coached at Porterville (Calif.) Junior College (1953-56), Pacific (1957-60) and Idaho (1961) before his five-year stay at San Diego State (1964-68). Hall, born in Maricopa, Calif., and his wife Mary are the parents of two sons and two daughters.

JACKIE SIMPSON, Backs

With an experienced pro football background, Jackie Simpson, 36, will be in charge of the Cardinals' secondary. He first entered the pro ranks as a scout for the American Football League in 1965. After the merger with the NFL in 1966, Simpson became a scout with the Chargers from 1967-71. He was defensive back coach at Houston last year.

A guard-linebacker at Mississippi, Simpson played with Montreal in the Canadian Football League from 1958-61. He returned to play in the final seven games of the 1961 season with Denver. He was with Oakland in 1962-64 and then went back to the Canadian League with Winnipeg in 1965 before starting his scouting duties. A native of Corinth, Miss., Simpson and his wife Angela are the parents of two sons and a daughter.

RAY WILLSEY, Defense

Entrusted with the important job of defensive coordinator is Ray Willsey, 43, who is starting his second Big Red coaching stint. Willsey was with the Cardinals for their first two years in St. Louis (1960-61) as a defensive coach, went to the Washington Redskins from 1962-63 and then became head coach at California (Berkeley) where he compiled a 40-42-1 record from 1964-71. His best record there was a 7-3-1 mark in 1968.

A quarterback-defensive back at California in 1951-52, Willsey played in more minutes as a senior than any other Golden Bear. In 1953, he played with Edmonton of the Canadian Football League under head coach Darrell Royal. He was an assistant at California (1954-55) and then rejoined Royal at Washington in 1956. When Royal became head coach at Texas in 1957, Willsey went along and stayed for three years before joining the Big Red. A native of Regina, Saskatchewan, Ray and his wife Barbara are the parents of three daughters.

BOONE

Personnel Department

GEORGE BOONE, Personnel Director

In charge of the Big Red's college scouting operation is George Boone, who starts his first season as director of player personnel after five years as assistant director. Boone, 34, began his NFL work in 1966 as a scout for the Central-Eastern Personnel Organization (CEPO), a scouting combine for seven league teams including the Cardinals. He came to the Big Red in 1968.

Born in Louisville, Ky., Boone was a three-year starter at offensive and defensive tackle at Kentucky from 1957-59 and was an assistant coach with the Wildcats from 1960-65. While at Kentucky, Boone received both a bachelor's and master's degree in education. He and his wife Dedee are the parents of four girls and a boy.

LARRY WILSON, Pro Scouting

Larry Wilson, who retired last year as the NFL's premier free safety after 13 seasons with the Cardinals, now will be spending his Sundays on the pro scouting trail. The new assignment is keeping the legendary No. 8 busy throughout the year.

A seventh-round draft choice from Utah in 1960, Wilson switched from running back to defense and immediately became a starter—making famous the safety blitz devised by the late assistant coach Chuck Drulis. From there, he proceeded to lay claim to ten all-time Big Red records, including almost every interception mark. He made eight Pro Bowl trips, led the NFL in interceptions in 1966 with 10, and tied a league mark that year for interceptions in seven straight games. Born in Rigby, Ida., Larry and his wife Dee Ann are the parents of two sons and a daughter.

WEST

STUBER

STAN WEST, Personnel Scout

Starting his ninth season as full-time scout for the Big Red is Stan West, an all-America lineman at Oklahoma and a starter in the NFL for eight seasons. West played with Los Angeles, the New York Giants and the Cardinals during his pro career.

From 1961-62, West was an assistant coach with Minnesota. After staying out of football for two years, he joined the Big Red in 1965. He lives in Norman, Okla., with his wife Mary Frances and their two sons.

BO BOLINGER, Personnel Scout

A second all-America lineman from Oklahoma on the Big Red personnel staff is Bo Bolinger, who is starting his third season as a full-time scout. Bolinger also was a two-time all-conference selection with the Sooners.

Before coming to the Big Red, he spent the 1969-70 seasons as an assistant with Calgary in the Canadian Football League. Previous college coaching stops were at Utah State, New Mexico, Tulsa and Denver. He lives in Tempe, Ariz., with his wife Barbara and their three daughters.

EMMETT (ABE) STUBER, Personnel Consultant

Abe Stuber, who retired last season after 13 years as the Big Red's personnel director, still is available for advice on Big Red personnel—lending more than 40 years of football service. Abe, who also had coached with the Cardinals in 1958 started his 13-year stay with the team in St. Louis in 1960.

A star quarterback at Missouri in 1924-26, Stuber began his college coaching at Westminster in Fulton, Mo., from 1929-31. In 1932, he began a 15-year stay at Southeast Missouri State in Cape Girardeau, coaching football, basketball and track. He was later head football coach at Iowa State (1947-53) and Washington (1954-55) before entering the pro ranks as an assistant with Philadelphia in 1956. He and his wife Dorothy live in Cape Girardeau, Mo. They have two children and four grandchildren.

OMOHUNDRO

SIMMONS

Training and Equipment

JOHN OMOHUNDRO, Trainer

The important job of caring for the health of the Big Red belongs to hard-working and dedicated John Omohundro, who begins his third season as the Cardinals' head trainer. Previously, "Johnny O." had served four seasons as assistant trainer.

A native of Salt Lake City, Omohundro earned a bachelor's degree in physical education at the University of Wyoming. He worked there as an assistant trainer and was head trainer at the College of Southern Utah before coming to the Big Red in 1967. Omohundro and his wife Martha live in St. Louis.

TOM DOLAN, Assistant Trainer

The Cardinals' training department boasts a second University of Wyoming alumnus in Tom Dolan, who is starting his third year as the Big Red's assistant trainer.

The 25-year-old Dolan is a native of Laramie, Wyo., and was a graduate assistant trainer at Wyoming before joining the Cardinals in 1970. He is single.

BILL SIMMONS, Equipment Manager

Bill Simmons, who has been efficiently handling the Big Red's vast equipment resources since 1966, begins his eighth season with the team. Prior to joining the Cardinals he had been a teacher at Ferguson Junior High School.

Born in Kansas City, Simmons earned bachelor's and master's degrees from Northwest Missouri State College around tours of military duty in World War II and the Korean War. He and his wife Katie are the parents of five children—with the eldest son Dan recently named as equipment manager of the New Orleans Saints.

WAIVER PROCEDURES

WAIVERS—The waiver period begins at 4 p.m., New York time and expires at 4 p.m., New York time, on the following day, beginning with the first working day following July 4, except that if waivers are requested on either Friday or Saturday, they do not expire until 4 p.m., New York time, on the next Monday. Between the end of the season and the first working day after July 4, waivers expire on the 10th following day. A 24-hour recall period follows each of the two waiver periods. Notice of waivers will be made simultaneously to each conference with claims recognized in priority by conference.

INJURED WAIVERS—The difference between a waived injured player and a player waived normally is that the "waived injured" player who clears waivers remains under contract to the waiving club and receives salary, medical and life insurance benefits and pension credit.

TRADING DEADLINES—The inter-conference trading deadline has been extended from July 31 this year until the final player cutdown date (September 10). Inter-conference trading commences on the day following the Pro Bowl game. The intra-conference trading deadline again will be the day following that on which all 26 teams will have played six regular season games (Tuesday, Oct. 23). Intra-conference trading commences each year on the day following the Super Bowl.

CUTDOWN DATES

On the following dates, each NFL team must reduce to the corresponding number of active players:

Tues., Aug. 7-60

Mon., Aug. 27-49

Mon., Sept. 3-44

Mon., Sept. 10-40

Chicago All-star team players need not count as active players until the 44-player limit is reached, even if they play in pre-season games prior to the reduction to 44. Waivers may not be recalled on the last four players released to meet the 40-player limit. Claims on all players waived after the active roster is reduced to 49 cannot be withdrawn.

However, any player waived during the reduction from 49 to 40 can be reactivated at any time by the waiving team. In all other cases—both prior to the mandatory cutdowns and after the start of the regular season—a period of 16 days or two games must elapse before a waived player can be restricted by the waiving team.

1972 Game-By-Game

Game 1 — Cardinals 10, Colts 3

Sept. 17 at Baltimore (53,652) — Despite being outgained by more than 200 total yards, Big Red scored opening game upset. Field goal gave Cardinals lead at half-time. Then, after Colts tied score, QB Tim Van Galder completed a 71-yard pass to Jackie Smith to set up Donny Anderson's four-yard TD. Bob Rowe blocked three Colt field goals, and Larry Wilson intercepted pass to stop final Colt drive. It was Cardinals' first win ever over Colts in Baltimore.

Game 2 — Cardinals 10, Redskins 24

Sept. 24 at Washington (53,039) — Larry Brown ran for 148 yards as Redskins made early lead hold up. Leading 7-0 early in second quarter, Washington scored again when Mike Bass returned a blocked Big Red FG attempt 32 yards. Final Redskin TD set up by pass interception. Walker Gillette led Big Red with 5 passes for 91 yards.

Game 3 — Cardinals 19, Steelers 25

Oct. 1 at St. Louis (49,140) — Big Red was on way to upset victory in home opener until a 38-yard Terry Bradshaw to Frank Lewis TD pass with just 1:06 left gave Steelers victory. Less than two minutes earlier, Cardinals had taken lead for first time when Norm Thompson blocked a Pittsburgh punt, recovered ball and ran eight yards for a TD. Gary Cuozzo threw for 199 yards but was guilty of four interceptions, while Steelers held Cardinals to 58 rushing yards.

Game 4 — Cardinals 19, Vikings 17

Oct. 8 at Bloomington, Minn. (49,687) — Big Red took early lead, fell behind, but rallied to keep intact record of never losing to Vikings in Minnesota. Gary Cuzzo teamed with Bobby Moore for two 24-yard scoring passes, the second giving Cardinals lead with 2:38 remaining. Vikings drove to set up field goal try on final play of game, but kick hit goal-post upright and bounced away. Big Red offensive line did not allow Vikings to sack Cuzzo once during entire game.

Game 11 — Cardinals 10, Dolphins 31

November 27 at Miami (80,010) — Three lost fumbles and as many interceptions killed any chance for Big Red upset against Super Bowl champions. Dolphins led only 10-3 at halftime but scored twice in third period to put game out of reach. Earl Morrall was 12 of 19 for 210 yards and 2 TDs, both to Otto Stowe. Jim Hart relieved Gary Cuozzo at QB in second half and led St. Louis to only TD. John Roland gained 25 yards to become the Big Red's all-time career ground-gainer.

December 10 at St. Louis (36,873) — Striking with big plays, Big Red won for first time in nine weeks. Ahead 3-0 in second quarter, Cardinals took ball on one-yard line after goal-line stand. On first play, Jim Hart passed 98 yards to Bobby Moore, taking the ball to the Ram one and setting a NFL record for longest gain from scrimmage on a non-scoring play. Donny Anderson then ran in for the score. Later in period, Norm Thompson ran 58 yards with a fumble recovery for a 17-0 halftime lead. Hart, passing for 201 yards, added a 30-yard TD toss to Walker Gillette in fourth quarter and Big Red defense then stopped Rams twice in final five minutes on separate goal-line stands.

Reserve, Inactive Lists

INACTIVE LIST—The move list, which last year permitted 12 player moves not subject to waivers during the season, has been replaced by an Inactive List, which will be established on the Thursday prior to the first regular season game. Thereafter, unlimited player movement between a team's Active List and Inactive List will be permitted. Each team will have a limit of 40 active and seven inactive players during the season, with teams having until one hour before game-time to decide which 40 players will be on the active list.

RESERVE LIST—A player may be placed on reserve for one of the following reasons: Military service, retirement, injury, did not report, left squad, physically incapable of performing or ineligible. Players who report to training camp and are subsequently placed on reserve for reason of retirement or injury cannot be reactivated during the season unless they first clear "no-recall" waivers. These players do not count toward a team's Inactive List.
